

Use of HACC services in Victoria in 2012-13 by people born in English speaking and non-English speaking countries

The HACC Program is jointly funded by the Commonwealth and Victorian Governments

Overview

This is a report on the extent to which people from English speaking and non-English speaking backgrounds were using Home and Community Care (HACC) services in 2012-13 in Victoria, Australia. It consists of tables showing the total number of HACC clients aged 0-64 years, and 65 years and over, by the Local Government Area (LGA) in which the client was living.

Age groups

HACC clients have been divided into two groups according to age:

- aged 0-64 years
- aged 65 years and over.

Birthplace groups

The HACC clients in each LGA have been divided into two groups according to birthplace:

- English-speaking countries (ESC). The main English-speaking countries are Australia, New Zealand, Canada, the United Kingdom, South Africa, Ireland and the United States of America. Also included in ESC are a number of smaller countries in the Caribbean and elsewhere.
- Non-English speaking countries.

HACC service groupings

The 11 activity types (or service types) provided by agencies funded under the HACC Program have been grouped into three:

- Home Support services (any mix of Domestic Assistance, Personal Care, Assessment, Case Management, Property Maintenance, Delivered Meals and Respite)
- Nursing and Allied Health services (Nursing, Allied Health); and
- Social Support services (Planned Activity Group, Volunteer Social Support).

Client counts

It should be noted that a single client may receive more than one type of service. The tables show an unduplicated count within each of the three service groups, but there is duplication across groups. Nearly 300,000 Victorians received a HACC service in 2012-13.

Data source

HACC Minimum Data Set 2012-13

The HACC Minimum Data Set contains a statistical linkage key (SLK), which enables the analyst to link all records pertaining to the same individual without identifying the person. A small number of HACC records were excluded because they had incomplete data on the SLK, or because the client lived in another state (for example, across the border).
