

ALLIED HEALTH CONFERENCE 2018

Engage, Create, Connect: Allied health working together

AGENDA | THURSDAY 31 MAY 2018 | Deakin University | Warrnambool Campus | Warrnambool | Victoria

9.00–9.30am	Registration
9.30–9.35am	Welcome – Master of Ceremonies – Dr Anna Wong Shee
9.35–9.50am	Welcome to Country: Uncle Rob Lowe and Uncle Locky Eccles, local Peek Whurrong, Elders of the Maar Nation
9.50–10.00am	Opening remarks – Mr Craig Fraser – Chief Executive Officer, South West Healthcare
10.00–10.45am	Keynote Speaker – Mr Jason Clarke, Minds at Work: Rediscovering leadership
10.45–10.55am	Question time
10.55–11.10am	Morning Tea
11.10am	10 minute presentations
Theme	ENGAGE: ENGAGING CLIENTS IN THE HEALTH SYSTEM	CREATE: CREATING A NEW IDEA OR WAY OF DELIVERING A SERVICE	CONNECT: CONNECTING STAFF IN THE WORK PLACE	CREATE: CREATING A NEW IDEA OR WAY OF DELIVERING A SERVICE
Room number	Room 12.24	Room 12.01	Room 12.27	Room 12.20
11.10–11.25am	Ms Natasha Selenitsch – Barwon Health Encouraging activity: Barriers and facilitators for subacute stroke survivors	Ms Elizabeth Walker and Ms Eleanor Capel – Northeast Health Wangaratta Mealtime dangers: Assessing food allergy practices within a sub-regional hospital	Ms Angela Brommeyer and Mr Mark Kelly – Barwon Health Developing clinicians who model excellence in practice, challenge poor practice and inspire others	Ms Lisha Kuravilla – Barwon Health Regional palliative care partnerships: A pharmacy outreach program
11.25–11.40am	Ms Jane Dow – Barwon Health Telehealth: Clinician utilisation and perceptions in spinal community rehabilitation	Ms Kait Brown – South West Healthcare Advanced developmental paediatric practitioner – A one-stop shop for children with developmental delay	Ms Carol Mioduchowski – Barwon Health High risk foot rotations for podiatry staff outcomes	Ms Katrina Martin – Western Victoria Primary Health Network Chronic pain: Less opioids, more allied health...but how?
11.40–11.55am	Ms Madison Rush – South West Healthcare Cancer rehabilitation program: Supportive care for people with cancer	Mrs Megan Battersby – Barwon Health Can clinical practice be improved for charting specialised nutritional products?	Ms Karyn Newnham – Ballarat Health Services Supporting early career allied health clinicians in rural Australia	Mr Thomas Chapman and Ms Amy Smith – South West Healthcare Saeboflex service delivery model at Southwest Healthcare
11.55–12.00pm	5 minute transition
Theme	ENGAGE: ENGAGING CLIENTS IN THE HEALTH SYSTEM	CREATE: CREATING A NEW IDEA OR WAY OF DELIVERING A SERVICE	CONNECT: CONNECTING STAFF IN THE WORK PLACE	CONNECT: CONNECTING STAFF IN THE WORK PLACE
Room number	Room 12.24	Room 12.01	Room 12.27	Room 12.20
12.00–12.15pm	Ms Kylie McKenzie – Ballarat Health Services Guiding patients through complexity: Motivational interviewing and multimorbidity	Ms Meredith Atkinson – Ballarat Health Services Malnutrition Weighted Inlier Equivalent Separation (WIES) management	Mr Brian Eft – Ballarat Health Services and Corangamite Health Collaborative The allied health interdisciplinary leader project	Ms Nicole O’Shea and Ms Gemma Siemensma – Ballarat Health Services How are medication resources used? A library and pharmacy department collaboration
12.15–12.30pm	Mrs Jacinta Lenehan – South West Healthcare Evaluation of a breastfeeding app in rural Australia: Prospective cohort study	Miss Fontaine Portelli – South West Healthcare Redesign of the food service model within chemotherapy	Mr Mark Kelly – Barwon Health Lessons from delivering interprofessional education for clinical supervisors and preceptors	Ms Helen Codman and Dr Ruth Nicholls – Royal Children’s Hospital Education outreach: A new approach for Victorian allied health professionals
12.30–12.45pm	Ms Natasha Selenitsch and Ms Erin O’Shanassy – Barwon Health Volunteers: A useful team member for increasing subacute activity levels	Ms Rachael Couch and Ms Hannah Rippon – South West Healthcare Establishing an upper limb assessment model across occupational therapy services	Dr Cath Cosgrave and Ms Rachael Cooper – East Grampians Health Service and University of Melbourne, Rural Health Trialling “whole-of-person” approach to improve rural-retention of early-career allied health professionals	Mrs Genevieve Arblaster – Barwon Health Allied health involvement in the Skin Integrity Champion Program
12.45–1.15pm	Lunch

5 MINUTE PRESENTATIONS
Theme	ENGAGE: ENGAGING CLIENTS IN THE HEALTH SYSTEM	CREATE: CREATING A NEW IDEA OR WAY OF DELIVERING A SERVICE	CONNECT: CONNECTING STAFF IN THE WORK PLACE	TWO THEMES: ENGAGE AND CREATE
Room number	Room 12.24	Room 12.01	Room 12.27	Room 12.20
1.15–1.20pm	Introduction
1.20–2.15pm	Mr Damon Burn – Barwon Health A hydrotherapy class audit: Should we focus on low performers?	Ms Johanne Walker – Deakin University A novel cycling program for volunteers and aged care residents	Ms Emma Edwards – Barwon Health Strategies to enhance physiotherapy student engagement in non-metropolitan clinical placements	Mr Adrian Benson – St John of God Warrnambool Hospital ENGAGE: Improving balance: Is getting into the water enough?
	Mr Brendan Cutts – Ballarat Health Services How does delirium affect allied health therapy after stroke?	Ms Amanda Jones – Barwon Health National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in community health and private practice: A dietetic perspective	Ms Kathryn Vick – Barwon Health Reflecting on the allied health graduate program: 4 years on	Dr Lucio Naccarella – University of Melbourne ENGAGE: Optimising the capability of allied health workforce within cancer prehabilitation
	Ms Anne-Marie Banfield – Winda-Mara Aboriginal Health, Indigenous Eye Health Closing the gap for vision by 2020 – Great South Coast	Ms Susan Eaton – Ballarat Health Services Implementation of a lymphoedema surveillance program in a regional hospital	Mrs Charmaine Swanson – University of Melbourne Going Rural Health (GRH): Making rural student placements work for all	Mr Luke Evans – Ballarat Health Services ENGAGE: Preoperative exercise intervention for patients with prostate, colon and breast cancer
	Mr Simon Buggy – Barwon, Child, Youth and Family Alcohol and other drug services integration in a primary care setting	Ms Jane Hurley – South West Health Care Improving the model of care for Gestational Diabetes Mellitus	Ms Courtney Seipolt and Mr David Kerr – Wimmera Health Care Group Western cluster – Allied health early career program	Ms Janet Yong – Ballarat Health Services ENGAGE: Establishing the dietetic service of Commonwealth Home Support Program (CHSP) at Ballarat Health Services
	Ms Marian Cornett – Moyne Health Short Term Restorative Care (STRC): Enhancing rural allied health care	Ms Erin O’Shanassy – Barwon Health Evaluation of a competency training package for XSENSOR®	Mrs Anna Densley and Ms Lisa Worden – South West Healthcare Supporting rural professional collaboration: Occupational therapy networking in southwest Victoria	Ms Kate Van Berkel and Mr Matthew Ely – Barwon Health CREATE: One consultation, four disciplines: A model for inter-professional cancer cachexia management
	Ms Tameaka Lakey – Ballarat Community Health Collaborating to connect at-risk youth with oral health care	Miss Lisa Edwards – Barwon Health Investigating the safe positioning of clients in podiatry clinics	Dr Deborah Greenslade and Ms Gemma Siemensma – Ballarat Community Health and Ballarat Health Services Engaging with the evidence in a community health setting	Ms Eliz Rhook – Hepburn Health Service CREATE: Foot health in cancer care: Introducing podiatry
	Ms Samantha Morley and Ms Madison Pyke – South West Healthcare Intensive home-based Rehabilitation: The value of allied health assistants	Ms Simone Meade – Ballarat Health Services Building momentum: Strengthening Hospital Responses to Family Violence (SHRFV)	Mr John Brooks and Mrs Liz Robinson – South West Healthcare and Bellarine Community Health Allied health assistants connecting together	Ms Carly McKew – South West Healthcare CREATE: South West Healthcare community health divisional assessment tool
2.15–2.30pm	Afternoon tea
Room number	Room 12.01	Room 12.27	Room 12.24
2.30–3.15pm	WORKSHOP 1: Mr Jason Clarke Great minds don’t think alike	WORKSHOP 2: Mr Richard Frankland Creating cultural Safety	WORKSHOP 3: Professor Karen Stagnitti Researcher and clinician: Connecting research with practice
3.15–3.45pm	Keynote Speaker – Ms Kathleen Philip, former Victorian Chief Allied Health Advisor- Reflections and directions: Building the future
3.45–3.55pm	Question time
3.55–4.15pm	MC – Summary, prizes and closing remarks

