Access more clinical information in your patients' My Health Records

My Health Record is an online summary of your patient's health information. More than 1 in 5 Australians already have one.

By the end of 2018, every Australian will have a My Health Record unless they tell us they don't want one.

For more information

🌐 Go to myhealthrecord.gov.au

📞 Call 1800 723 471

✓ View information from other healthcare providers

✓ Save time by accessing information at the point of care

✓ Get a more complete picture of your patient's health including their medicines, allergies, conditions and test results

Speak to your health service on how to access the My Health Record today